

MOYER ET AL SAID "NOT GUILTY"

Date of Trial Indefinitely Fixed
For Somewhere About
May 15.

THREE PRISONERS SEPARATED

Moyer Sent to Boise, Haywood Goes
To Weiser, Pettibone Remains
At Caldwell.

Boise, Ida., March 20.—Charles H. Moyer, William D. Haywood and George A. Pettibone, charged with the murder of former Gov. Frank Steunenberg, today pleaded not guilty when arraigned before District Judge Frank Smith at Caldwell. The cases were continued over the term, and the date of their trial was indefinitely fixed at about May 15.

When the cases were called this morning Judge Smith overruled the demurrer to the indictments, and denied the application to admit the prisoners to bail. Judge Smith stated that in holding the indictment to be good he had followed the usage of the California supreme court. The constitution and criminal statutes of California and Idaho are practically the same. After the three prisoners had been arraigned another application to admit them to bail was made, and was promptly denied.

BANK OF RANDOLPH.

It Has Just Been Organized in Rich
County—Capital $25,000.

The bank of Randolph, in Rich county, has just been organized with Wesley K. Walton as president, W. H. Ritter as vice president, and George Spencer as cashier. Other directors are John C. Cutler, George Romney, William Carless, C. J. Spencer and Peter Johnson. The capital of the bank is $25,000 divided into 250 shares of $100 each. There is an excellent opportunity to work for banking operations, and the bank is well equipped with all the modern facilities. It will be seen that the bankers interested in it are stanch and able citizens.

OPERA ONCE MORE.

Successful "Queen of Leon" to be Repeated.

The charming opera, "The Queen of Leon," recently given by four of the leading singers and two of the leading instrumentalists of the state, will be repeated by request on Wednesday evening in Barratt Hall. The piece is beautiful in music, as might be presumed to be a tragedy, but it is a comedy. The writer of "The Bohemian Girl," the singers, however, have even improved upon the piece itself by the introduction of several choice ballads, among them an original composition of Mrs. G. W. G. Following is a list of the musical numbers to be rendered after the overture:

AMUSEMENTS.

Salt Lake Theater.—At the Theater tonight the well known opera star, Pauline Hall, will give the first presentation in this city of the comic opera "Dorcas."

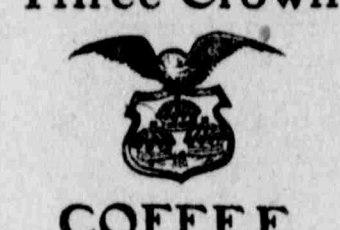

The next attraction at the Theater after Pauline Hall will be the popular known actor, Creston Clarke, in his production of the play of "Beaucaire."

Lyric.—The popular bill at the Lyric this week continues to draw good crowds.

Orpheum.—A good program and a good house were in evidence at the Orpheum last night, and not because it was the first to be heard should the orchestra be accorded first mention, but for the reason that its rendition of the "William Tell" overture, was so clearly in advance of vaudeville music as to stand distinct and alone. It is doubtful if that grand old masterpiece was ever so excellently played in Utah with the same number of men. It was given a reception that amounted almost to an ovation.

Deseret.—A unique and artistic performance on the alto, the Mexican national instrument, and looked and acted to a nicely the part of the languorous and wandering minstrel of Montezumaland. The two Auberts certainly furnished something out of the ordinary in their whirling dancing numbers, and Rae and Brosche convulsed the audience with their satire of "A Woman of Few Words." Misnomer Kellin did some dancing of an "eccentric character," and made a decided hit, which was particularly effective in the O'Hara song with a small boy of the voice who was stationed in one of the upper boxes. Galletti's monkey performance was one of the cleverest and most amusing of animal entertainments. The one ancient and innocuous act with naught but stale jokes poorly, badly, told in fact, was by a young and hard working gentleman, who is endeavoring to make a reputation as a monologist. His name is Ely, but he does not belong to "the get-there-ely" family. He should change his occupation today. Tomorrow may be too late. The kindest and most other attractions are among the best.

the house has yet given its patrons. They run for the remainder of the week.

Grand—"A Fight For Honor" with Theo. Lorch and his company in action. It is drawing big houses at the Grand, and the play proves a pleasant surprise after the Jesse James and Michael Strogoff offerings by the same cast. It isn't full of murder, it isn't full of daggers, and there are moments when the guns refuse to fire. The name is the most sensational thing about it, and apart from that it is a pretty told story of the struggles of an American artist who marries an English girl and afterwards goes blind, while his wife, who is made to believe he is dead, marries the villain. Finally the villain is discovered in his true colors, the real husband is restored, and a son, who brings the reconciliation about, finds his long lost mother. Of the support John McCabe, first as the hired man, and then as Sir Laurence Travers, does excellently, and makes most of the play. While Miss Gertrude Perry, the leading lady of the company, has her difficult part acceptably. "A Fight For Honor" will be the bill until Wednesday evening, including the usual midweek matinee.

WOMEN'S KIDNEYS.

Women are more often afflicted with kidney disorders than men, but attribute the symptoms to catarrh of the bladder, or to some other ailment of the sex, while in reality the kidneys are diseased. Nervousness, headache, puffiness of the face, backache, and aching in the back, are signs of kidney trouble that must not be ignored, or a serious malady will result. Foley's Kidney Cure has restored the health of thousands of weak, nervous, broken-down women. It stops irregularities and strengthens the urinary organs. It purifies the blood and benefits the whole system. Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

LIVE STOCK DEAL BRINGS $54,000.

Three Thousand Head of Cattle
Sold by Thomas Keogh to
J. C. Brenner.

ENGINEERED BY MCCORNICK.

Herd is Now at Salt River Ranch and
Will be Moved to Montana, by Rail, Very Soon.

A big cattle deal was consummated today by wire, which involved the sum of $54,000 and the transfer of 3,000 head of stock at $18 per head. The deal was engineered by W. S. McCormick, the seller being Thomas Keogh of Ogden and the purchaser J. C. Brenner of Grant, Beaverhead, Mont.

The herd consists of all kinds of beef and stock cattle, at present feeding on the ranch near Salt River, south of American Falls, Ida.

It is the intention to ship them early to Montana, and arrangements were made to send out the first consignment of 50 carloads on March 26, but owing to the bad weather, this date has been cancelled with the Oregon Short Line and the cattle will be moved early in April.

The cattle market generally is picking up and several bunches have changed hands during the past few days. M. K. Parsons is reported to have sold quite a large number recently, but all concerned decline to discuss the deals as they claim that undue publicity would have the effect of creating a false impression among farmers with stock to sell who would be moved to hold on to their stock in the hopes of an advance.

SEVERAL BIG HOLE DEALS.

Several deals are reported from the Big Hole country, Montana, where some large herds and many fat cattle are now located. The Deagan Bros. of Denver are said to have been buying heavily from that section, but the snow is very deep, so deep, in fact, as to make ingress and egress practically impossible. Just as soon as spring breaks there will in consequence be a lot of active shipping from that point.

SHEEP MEN GAIN ALL POINTS ON UTAH RESERVE CASE

(Special to the "News")

Washington, D. C., March 20.—Senator Smoot this morning accompanied E. H. Cutler, David Mackay and John E. Austin, representing the Sheep Growers' association, to call upon Foster Pinchot relative to certain privileges the sheep men desire in the Uintah forest in Utah and Wyoming. The conference between the sheep men and Mr. Pinchot lasted about an hour, with the result that the sheep men's representative gained every point they are contending for.

Mrs. Smoot, wife of Senator Smoot, arrived in Washington this afternoon. This is Mrs. Smoot's first appearance in Washington at this session.

STATEHOOD BILL TO BE TAKEN UP TOMORROW.

Washington, March 20.—The statehood bill will be taken up in the house tomorrow under the protection of a special rule, the adoption of which will be the necessary step on the part of the house to get the bill into the hands of a conference committee of the senate and house. Forty minutes' debate would be divided between the friends and opponents of the measure when a vote will be taken.

The special rule is declared to be the only way the bill can be taken from the speaker's table, as otherwise it would have to go to the committee on territories because of the senate amendment making a different disposition of certain government property than was contemplated in the house bill. If this amendment should not be made a motion to concur in the senate amendments would have been in order as taking precedence over a motion to disagree.

However, the advocates of the house bill see a tactical advantage in the special rule as some members who were inclined to support a motion to concur with the senate will not be inclined to oppose a rule direct from the speaker's room.

A meeting of the Republican insurgents is contemplated. Their leaders say the rule probably will be adopted, but that while they have no real objection to sending the bill to the committee, they will vote against the rule, as they consider it constructive instructions to the house conferees that they are not to report unless they can reach an agreement with the committee on the bill. They predict that the vote tomorrow will be the last one in which the regulars can hold their strength and that if a report comes in, Arizona and New Mexico will be eliminated from the bill.

Lincoln, Neb., March 20.—Nearly all the business district of North Loup, Neb., was destroyed today. The town is without fire fighting facilities.

BANK ROBBERS SECURE NEARLY HALF A MILLION.

Moscow, March 20.—As the officials were closing the Mutual bank this afternoon, 20 armed men surrounded the building which is near the Bourse, and after a report comes in, Arizona and New Mexico will be eliminated from the bill.

They pillaged the place, getting away with $25,000 and made their escape in spite of the efforts of the bank guards to arrest them.

BUSINESS NOTES.

The board of directors of the Deseret Savings bank at its meeting today declared the regular dividend of two per cent, and an extra of four per cent, payable immediately.

The newly elected board of directors of the Bank of Garland met at the Deseret National bank this morning and elected the following officers: W. R. Riter, president; Thos. R. Cutler, vice president; Chas. J. Campbell, of Garland, cashier. The bank has completed its first year and the outlook for business was reported as being very promising.

GUARD WILL NOW BEGIN HARD WORK

APPOINTMENT OF NAYLOR.

It Was Regular and Endorsement of Officers Was Forwarded by Col. Geoghegan.

A misrepresentation that may either be wilful or accidental is made in a morning paper today, regarding the appointment of Ray C. Naylor as adjutant-general of the National Guard, and it is made to appear that Gov. Cutler broke his faith with the officers of the organization in not naming a man whom they had endorsed, after promising to do so.

Prior to the naming of the appointee one of the most general cries, echoed largely from the source of the present statement, was for the appointment of a military man, a man with a soldier's experience, and to whom the state owed a debt incurred through service for the state in the nation's wars.

When Gov. Cutler made his proposition to the guard it was to all the officers of the organization, and not to the unofficial organization among a part of the Salt Lake officers, known as the "Officers' association." Therefore when six officers of that association voted upon the name of available man, they forwarded them, through military channels, their findings were taken as the opinion of the six men, by Col. Jos. Geoghegan, to whom the recommendations came. He did not forward them, as was explained and published at the time, but sent a circular letter to every officer of the guard, naming the men selected, and asking for other names, if the officers desired to add them, or endorsements of those added.

NAYLOR'S NAME MENTIONED.

From the results, Col. Geoghegan forwarded to the governor on March 14, a list embracing those mentioned by all the officers, leaving the governor to make his own choice from those named. The only changes in the list submitted were the additions of the names of Col. Lund received three of the six votes at the officers' meeting in Salt Lake, when it was considered whether or not to forward his name. The statement made this morning that it was feared that Col. Lund was responsible for the appointment of Lieut. Naylor, could not possibly have been true, as the latter published below fixed responsibility without any doubt.

That the article published this morning was inspired from a source within the guard is also doubtful, as it is well known by every officer in the officer's association that Col. Geoghegan did not forward their report as final, but wrote circular letters to all officers, including the members of the association, asking for their personal opinions, and leaving it clear that he intended to add any names suggested to those suggested by the Salt Lake officers.

NOW TOO LATE TO KNOCK.

The time now is probably past when the guard will have to figure its affairs on any other than a strictly military basis, as all purposes and plans are now better understood than they ever were, and the funds at hand are sufficient to support a strictly military command. The concern of the national government over the guards in each state is so marked that it would be regarded generally as unfortunate if the guard's opportunities to grow were not realized.

Col. Geoghegan said this morning that he regarded it as entirely too late to be knocking instead of working, and that Gen. Naylor and both his heartiest support and his best wishes, and that he would do everything in his power to help him provide the means for the guard to become a strong organization in the state, and ready to do what the government intends it to do—remain ready for service in the first reserve in case of any emergency.

THE LETTER.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Mar. 14, 1906. Hon. John C. Cutler, Governor, City. Dear Sir:—In accordance with your suggestion to the National Guard officers, I submit herewith a list of names that have been submitted by the officers for the post of adjutant general:

H. M. H. Lund.
Ray Naylor.
E. C. Park.
Benner N. Smith.
Miles W. Taylor.
Richard W. Young.
Willard Young.
E. A. Wedgewood.

I respectfully request that you accept my resignation, immediately, and I would suggest that you appoint Col. Irvine, judge-advocate general, to perform the duties of the adjutant general, until such time as you have selected the proper name from the above.

Thanking you for the many kindnesses during my tenure of office, I remain, yours truly,
JOS. GEOGHEGAN.

Declared a Dividend.—The Deseret Savings bank directors met this morning, and declared a 6 per cent dividend, and a 4 per cent dividend, on the 2 per cent regular, and 4 per cent extra, which will amount to $5,000 and is payable immediately.

Incorporation Articles.—The Northern Accident and Sick Benefit association of Michigan filed a copy of its articles of incorporation in the secretary of state's office today. Secy. of state Tingey is named as resident attorney for the company in this state.

Big Returns Reported.—A local bank reports having received $70,000 in the last five days in the shape of returned loans, and as other banking institutions are going through the same experience, it is evident that money is becoming easy, and rates are much less than usual.

Needing Completion.—The interior of the First Presbyterian church has been completed so that all that remains now is to put in the glass windows and install the seats. Both seats and glass are now on the road somewhere between Chicago and Salt Lake, and on their arrival it will not require much time to put them in place.

Competitive Plans.—Messrs. Erskine & Liljenberg of this city, are in receipt of an invitation from General Secretary of the Savannah, Ga., Y. M. C. A. to participate in a competition for the plans for a $75,000 Y. M. C. A. building about to be erected at Savannah. Prizes will be awarded for the three best plans.

To Distribute Seeds.—City Supt. of Schools Christensen has received several large packages of choice garden and flower seeds from Senators Smoot and Sutherland and Congressman Howell. The seeds will be distributed among the various schools of the city and will be used by the pupils in their spring gardening on the school grounds.

Warmer Weather Coming.—The weather is growing milder, and the weather office looks for yet warmer weather tonight, with snow following as a probable "fly." According to the almanac as adapted to the 1905 meridian, the sun will cross the equator at 5:04 a. m. tomorrow at which date gentle spring will officially begin.

A Sad Bereavement.—Ben Gordon Place, the infant son of Gordon H. and Bessie Kirkbride Place, died at 7:45 o'clock last evening after an illness of some months. The little one did not suffer critically ill until about a week ago. Everything possible was done to save the child but it was not to be. The babe was born on June 5, 1905. The funeral will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at which date gentle spring will officially begin.

New Hotel Proposed.—Col. E. F. Holmes has been urged to erect a fine hotel on the State and East South streets, near the residence of the colonel's residence, and he is considering the proposition. Such a hotel would cost at least $500,000. The ground floor would be utilized for business purposes excepting so much as might be necessary for a hotel office and lobby. It is understood that one of the best known hotel proprietors in the state would be retained to take charge of the hotel for its business.

After Bingham People.—The state board of health still after the violators of the health laws in Bingham canyon, where closets are set right over the stream that flows down through the town, and the making of a stream an open sewer, with the expected result that typhoid has been a regular and constant visitor in that section of the county for some time. Secy. Beatty's patience gave out today, and he has called upon the attorney-general for an opinion as to what he can do in the premises.

Phones for Farmers.—The Bell Telephone companies throughout the country have been making it a point to furnish farmers and country people generally to install telephone connections in this way. The farmers cut their own poles and set them, so that all that it costs them is teaming and labor. Then they buy the wire and insulators from the companies at just about cost price, and then they own the line themselves. The companies furnish phones and service, for 50 cents a month per person, they receiving the benefit through the strengthening of their service and the toll connection to the towns.

Weather Report.—Record at the local office of the weather bureau for the 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:

FOOLISH ACT OF SALT LAKE BOY.

William Parr of This City Tried to Commit Suicide in Los Angeles.

HE WAS MADLY IN LOVE.

Wanted to Die Because a Chorus Girl
Refused to Marry Him—Cut
His Wrist.

A recent issue of a Los Angeles paper contains a story on the attempted suicide of William Parr, a former Salt Lake boy who is now a member of the Olympia Opera company which played an engagement at the Hotchkiss theater in that city last week. It seems that Mr. Parr was in love with Miss Emma Ray, a chorus girl with the company, and she did not return his affection and refused to marry him. Her action in that matter appeared to prey upon his mind until becoming desperate he locked himself in a dressing room at the theater during a matinee performance and tried to cut the arteries of his wrist with a nail file belonging to Miss Ray's manicure set.

The incident occurred during a heated quarrel with Miss Ray. When the door of the dressing room was broken open by stage employees who were attracted by loud voices, Parr was found lying in a pool of blood with both wrists badly lacerated. He was revived and before medical assistance could be summoned slipped away and disappeared. Mr. Parr is well known in Salt Lake musical circles as he was a member of the Apollo quartet, which was a general favorite here several years ago.
